13 STEPS TO ORGANISE YOUR CLEANUP EVENT

- Pick your cleanup site and run a risk assessment;
- Do not forget about a first aid kit and mobile phone;
- Think up a plan for disposing of the waste and plan the logistics;
- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Promote your event with media and partners;
- Identify team and cleanup area leaders;
- Organise volunteer insurance;
- Ensure that volunteers under 18 are accompanied by adults;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;
- If you find abandoned cars, weapons or suspicious items, contact the local police;
- Caution in handling hazards!
- Weigh the collected waste and put it in separate trash bags;
- Take a group picture with World Cleanup Day symbolics;
- Share it with your local organiser for the biggest publicity;
- Clarify that during the cleanups all man-made materials should be collected;
- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;
- Report your results. Send the number of people and amount of collected waste to the national team or coordinators;
- Contact:
  - www.worldcleanupday.org
  - www.letsdoitworld.org

- Be environmentally sensitive: do not intrude on the bird nesting areas and aboriginal historical sites;

- If necessary, contact the local municipal council or recycling company;
- Delegate cleanup areas to volunteer pairs and groups;
- Distribute cleanup materials;
- Provide safety equipment for all volunteers;
- Provide hand washing facilities or hand wipes;
- During the cleanup sort the collected waste into the item groups;
- Separate materials that can be recycled and dispose of appropriately;